“Due to a recent incident I required the services of a solicitor. From the outset I was treated courteously by the administrative staff at the office in Letterkenny, County Donegal. Throughout, clear dialogue and prompt advice from Ánie Murray and Jane Lanigan resulted in informed decisions being made. As a client, I was kept up-to-date in plain language each and every step of the way which became reassuring. My integrity and confidentiality during consultations culminated in an outcome found in my favour. Lanigan Clarke Solicitors are the epitome of best practice and highly recommended.”
